

What to Do if a Death Has Occurred

Since most deaths occur in health care institutions such as hospitals and nursing homes, the attending staff may provide you with some preliminary information. If the death occurs at home, please notify the physician or attending registered nurse (if the death was unexpected, or if there are any peculiar circumstances, phone the police immediately). If the deceased was under hospice care at home, the hospice staff should have left some basic information for you to follow. No matter what circumstance, our brief checklist will help you along the way.

First Step: Initial Contact

- Contact doctor, nurse, coroner or police if necessary
- Contact Modern Celebrations or Cremations by phone at (506) 458-8383 - we are available 24 hours/day.
 - When you call, we will ask you these questions:
 - What is the full name of your loved one who died?
 - Where did your loved one die? Are they still at that location?
 - Who is the next of kin, executor/executrix and what is their contact information?
 - What is your name and contact information (if you are not the next of kin)?
 - Does your loved one have a pre-arranged funeral with our firm?

Second Step: Completing Celebration and/or Cremation Arrangements

- Set an appointment time with one of our counsellors to discuss the details of the arrangements.
- For the appointment, we will ask you to have information and items that we need to complete the arrangements, such as:
 - Vital Statistical information for your loved one including:
 - Date and place of birth (city and province)
 - Parents' names, including mother's maiden name
 - Marital status and spouse's full name
 - Education information
 - Social insurance number
 - Veteran information including discharge papers / claim number
 - Pre-arrangement documentation (if applicable)
 - Cemetery lot documentation (if applicable)
 - A recent photograph of your loved one.
 - Clothing for your loved one
- Decide on the location of the celebration or gathering, if any. These can be performed at McAdam's Memorial Centre, your church, your home or another facility that is appropriate for hosting gatherings.
- Contact the clergy/celebrant/officiant/emcee who will be presiding at the celebration/gathering. We can also guide you if the family wishes to emcee the gathering/celebration.
- Set the time for the service.
- Compose obituary (with our assistance if, you wish; there is no additional fee for this service). The information needed includes: a photo, age, place of birth, list of surviving family members, list of pre-deceased family members (if desired), occupation, education, memberships, military service, hobbies and activities, the details of the service, donations to a particular charity (if desired). Again, we will help you with the obituary and post it on our website, plus submit it to any appropriate newspapers (if desired).

- Determine the number of death certificate copies that you will need and we will order them for you.

Third Step: After the Arrangements and before the celebration/gathering.

- People will say to you, "Please let us know if there is anything that we can do," so be prepared (and don't feel bad) to accept this generosity. Make a list of items and tasks such as meals (let them know if there are any special food allergies), household duties (including cleaning or mowing the lawn) and transportation (for out of town family or friends or even picking up kids from school). Again, don't feel bad accepting this help; your friends want to help but usually don't know what to offer.
- Arrange for childcare, if necessary, although we strongly suggest that all family members be present at the service.

Fourth Step: After the Service

- Set an appointment with our Aftercare Specialist to help you get organized with settling the estate, filling out forms, and contacting the appropriate agencies, including:
 - Notifying the bank of the death
 - Notifying insurance companies
 - Contacting the lawyer if necessary
 - Canceling credit cards and driver's license

If you have more detailed questions on what steps to take next, or if you are ready for us to assist you, call (506) 458-8383 any time, day or night. We are here to help you.
